the sound too.
But what she said she saw on a wooded trall near the lake a few minutes later was no bird. "He was black, all hairy, at least seven and a half feet tall and had big lips and big eyebrows." excitedly reported Vernita later.
"My sisters, Mrs. Linda Randall, 24, the whistle and a deep growl, but and Falu Frazier, 10, had also heard thought it was some boys trying to scare us." Vernita said she and her sisters finished their picnic lunch and "I screamed and he stopped and growled. Then 'he turned and ran up the hill." The girl said the huge creature look four bounds and was out of sight in the brush. She recalled seeing a red finge on his chest, as if he had been recently wounded.

Vernita's two sisters, her brother, Fencer Frazier, 12, and cousin, Glen Casey, 13, heard the scream and growl and said they caught glimpses of the retreating Sasquatch-like beast as he
